Howell's force, this week.

J. T. McGuire and Johnny Carroll went to Lincoln, Sunday.

H. E. MacKain is a new machinist, although an old employee.

Traveling Wire Chief Wm. Wood was here, Friday and Saturday.

Engineer Steve Finn was off duty, last week, with an attack of grip.

Engines 1324, 134 and 637 are all out of the backshop, after an overhauling.

James Toohey, formerly in the service here, is now a roadmaster at Sterling, Colo.

Charles Hine, one of the early settlers but late of Indianapolis, Indiana, is here on a visit.

Machinist Apprentice B. Y. Druliner has been transferred from the day to the night force.

The pay car came in on No. 13, yesterday, and went west on No. 3, same night. A new deal.

from the company's service and is on the night force at the electric light plant now.

Engineer and Mrs. I. L. Rodstrom returned to the city, first of the week, after an absence of several weeks in the east.

No. 6 was several hours late, Monday night, the result of the engine getting off the track at the Union Pacific crossing near Denver.

F. W. Schultz, ex-general foreman, departed for Denver, Sunday night.
It is thought he might enter the employ of the Colorado Southern.

Dispatcher Harry D. Stewart has purchased the A. C. Ebert lots over on Monmouth street, and contemplates building a cosy home in due time.

Ralph Haggard, round house foreman at Oxford, was at headquarters, Friday last. Mrs. Haggard accompanied him.
They returned home on the night train.

Vice President Dan Willard and others high in Burlington service were in the city, Wednesday, on a trip of inspection, going over the several departments thoroughly.

The baggage and postal combination car on the McCook-Imperial branch was taken to the shops for repairs, Saturday, and another car went into service, Monday morning.

J. G. Schobel received word of the death of his mother, Wednesday, and he and his brother Herman took the night train for Minden, where the burial took place, today. They have much true sympathy in this sorrow.

The independent water system now being built by the company will cost about $15,000 including wells, stand-pipes, spur track to the plant etc., and will make one of the most substantial improvements projected by the company this year.

Wire Chief C. F. Heber, who has been quite ill for the past two weeks, is at this printing much improved and getting on nicely, being able to be out and about a little. This will be welcome news to many anxious and inquiring friends.

and is working for his uncle, James Lee.

All boxes on rural free delivery routes must have signals on them in proper working order, according to law. How about yours, neighbor?

NORTH SIDE.

H. H. Bandy was on the market last week, with a little bunch of hogs, for which he got $450. It pays to raise hogs here.

The Hamilton boys finished hauling their wheat to market last Saturday.
They are getting ready to move to their new farm twelve miles north west of Culbertson, in the near future. The boys are hustlers and we feel sure they will prosper in their new home.

W. M. Rozell sold four hogs, a few days ago, for which he got $90. Pretty good we think. Now he has built a new hog house 60 foot long, so he can take care of his hogs better in the future. W.
M. Sharp was the boss carpenter of the day for Mr. Rozell.

We understand that Bert Wales will move to his farm near Palisade this week. Bert is a young man with lots of push and he will do well in his new home.

H. H. Bandy has a sale this week, and will prepare to move on his farm in Republican county, Kansas, near Hubbell, Nebraska.

C. DeWitt Griffith will move to his farm near Palisade, on or before March first.

R. E. Divine has ordered a new incubator, and expects to venture into the chicken business this spring. We hope he will have better success than he did a couple years ago.

John Clark was showing W. M.
Sharp how to dehorn cattle one day last week, without any shute or stancion.
He just took a couple of ropes, went to the corral, caught a three-year-old, and tied him. John is onto the job o. k.

A. J. Church will have a sale February 21, and will go to his farm in the west soon after his sale, about the 25th.

G. H. Simmerman will move on the Church place as soon as Mr. Church moves out, and Fred Traphagen will move on the Simmerman place.

Eli Bair will move to Indiana soon.

Henry Corcoran and daughters returned home last week, from a visit to Indiana. Mr. Corcoran said he would have come sooner but he said so much wet weather made the road bed so soft for safe traveling.

On last Friday evening, about 40 of the neighbors of W. M. Sharp and family, gave them a complete surprise.
A few hours was pleasantly spent with games and other amusements, of which the board of trade seemed to be the winning game. Mr. Sharp now feels he can leave with a few friends at least, and with best wishes to all, he leaves you for Hebron, Neb., where he has bought a farm.

RED WILLOW.

Mrs. E. A. Saxon has been sick with grippe, but is better.

Mrs. Louise Longnecker is quite sick with grippe.

E. A. Saxon is making changes in his house. Mr. Whitney is doing the work.

Mr. Whitney and two other carpenters from Iowa, are boarding at Louis Longnecker's on account of Mrs. Saxon's illness.

Corn shelling has been brought to a standstill, from the corn being to damp to store away.

They shelled corn at Mr. Holland's this week, also at Mr. Santee's and Mr.
Colling's.

Old Mr. Meyers was found dead on his bed, the first of the week. He was a first class blacksmith, and did finer work in steel tools than any one who has ever been here.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer were out from Indianola, on Sunday, to see their daughter, Nellie Longnecker, who is sick with grippe.

Jacob Randal had an attack of grippe.
Mrs. Nettie Gieze is visiting at her father's, J. F. Helm.
